AVENUES

Grammar Review Guide

LYNNE GAETZ

Contents

- 1. Adjectives and Adverbs
- 2. Capitalization
- 3. Combining Sentences
- 4. Determiners
- 5. Modals
- 6. Nouns
- 7. Phrasal Verbs
- 8. Prepositions
- 9. Pronouns
- 10. Punctuation
- 11. Spelling
- 12. Verb Tense Review
 - 12.1 Present Tenses
 - 12.2 Past Tenses
 - 12.3 Future Tenses
 - 12.4 The Present Perfect Tense
 - 12.5 Past Perfect Tense
- 13. Questions
- 14. Common Irregular Verbs

23456789 IHE 20 19 18 138143 ABCD ENV94

© ERPI • REPRODUCTION PROHIBITED

1. Adjectives and Adverbs

Adjectives modify a noun and generally appear before the noun. Adjectives are always singular, even if the nouns they modify are plural.

We admired the sleek tall buildings.

Adverbs give information about a verb. Most adverbs end in -ly. Some exceptions are the adverbs fast, high, far, late, often, and soon, which never end in -ly.

Liam played the piano quickly. (The adverb quickly describes the action of playing.)

COMPARATIVE AND SUPERLATIVE FORMS OF ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS

		COMPARATIVE	SUPERLATIVE
Add -er or -est to one-syllable adjectives. When the adjective ends in a consonant-vowel-consonant, double the last letter.	nice young thin	nicer than younger than thinner than	the nicest the youngest the thinnest
In two-syllable adjectives ending in a consonant + -y, change -y to -i and add -er or -est.	happy crazy	happier than crazier than	the happiest the craziest
Add more or most to adjectives of two or more syllables and to adverbs ending in –ly.	modern slowly	more modern than more slowly than	the most modern the most slowly
Irregular adjectives have special forms.	good / well bad little (small amount) far	better than worse than less than farther than	the best the worst the least the farthest

EQUALITY: AS ... AS/THE SAME AS

Both as ... as and the same as express equality.

I am as tall as you. My math mark is the same as yours.

FREQUENCY ADVERBS

Adverbs modify verbs and can express time or frequency. Place frequency adverbs

■ after be I am often tired. He is rarely late.

before all other simple tense verbs
He usually arrives on time.

after an auxiliary verb She can always help us.

• after the subject in question forms
Does she sometimes wake up early?

2. Capitalization

Always capitalize

■ the pronoun "I" and the first word of every sentence

The car that I drive needs some repairs.

• the days of the week, the months, and holidays

Wednesday September 8 Labour Day

the names of specific places, such as buildings, streets, parks, public squares, lakes, rivers, cities, provinces, and countries

Spring Street Lake Ontario Halifax, Nova Scotia

• the names of languages, nationalities, tribes, races, and religions

Mohawk Buddhist

the titles of specific individuals

General Dallaire Prime Minister Brown Mrs. Green

the titles of specific courses

Beginner's Spanish Physics 201 Spanish 100

the important words in titles of literary or artistic works

Source Code Modern Family Bad Romance

3. Combining Sentences

You can combine sentences in a variety of ways.

COORDINATORS AND SUBORDINATORS

Use coordinators (and, but, so, yet) to connect ideas inside sentences.

I love the winter, but I don't like driving in the snow.

Use subordinators (see list below) to connect a secondary idea to a main idea.

I love the winter although I hate cleaning the snow off my car.

COMMON SUBORDINATORS

	TIME	REASON, CAUSE, OR EFFECT	CONDITION	CONTRAST	LOCATION
after	when	as	as long as	although	where before	while	because	if	even though	wherever since		since	so that	though until	, /	9	unless

TRANSITIONAL WORDS AND EXPRESSIONS

Use transitional words to connect sentences and paragraphs. When you use the following expressions, put a comma after the expression.

First, some people drive too fast.

COMMON TRANSITIONAL WORDS AND EXPRESSIONS

CHRONOLOGY (Sequence of ideas)	COMPARISON AND CONTRAST	ADDITIONAL ARGUMENT	EXAMPLE	EMPHASIS	CONCLUDING IDEAS
first, second, third*	however	additionally	for example	above all	finally later	nevertheless	also	for instance	clearly	in conclusion
next	on the one	as well	in fact	in fact	in short then	hand	in addition		more	therefore finally	on the other	furthermore		importantly	thus suddenly	hand	moreover		of course	to conclude similarly			undoubtedly

^{*} Do not write firstly, secondly, thirdly. It is preferable to write first, second, third.

© ERPI • REPRODUCTION PROHIBITED

4. Determiners

A and an mean "one." Only put a or an before singular count nouns.

■ Use a before nouns that begin with a consonant. a friend, a house

Exception: When u sounds like "you" put a before it. a union

• Use an before nouns that begin with a vowel. an apple, an umbrella

Exception: Use an before words that begin with a silent h. an honest man, an hour

Use the to indicate a specific noun (or specific nouns). The can be placed before singular or plural nouns.

general specific

I need to find a new shirt. The shirts in that store are expensive.

Note: Do not put the before the following:

sports languages the names of most cities, provinces, states, and countries

I play the hockey. We speak the English. My friend lives in the France.

MUCH, MANY, FEW, AND LITTLE

MANY FEW* / A FEW*	MUCH Little* / A Little*	A LOT OF Some
Paris has many museums.	I have too much work.	I took a lot of photos.
Very few people are there.	I have very little time.	Do you have some time?
A few museums are closed.	Do you have a little money?

^{*} Notice the differences in meaning. Few and little mean "almost none." A few and a little mean "a small amount." She has very few friends. She has little free time. (These are complaints.) She has a few friends. She has a little free time. (She is okay with the situation.)

THIS, THAT, THESE, AND THOSE

This and these are used to refer to people and things that are close to the speaker. That and those are used to refer to things that are distant from the speaker.

	NEAR THE SPEAKER	FAR FROM THE SPEAKER
singular	This shirt is mine.	That city is in Poland.
	This year I turn twenty-one.	Remember 1955? My father was born in that year.
plural	These glasses are mine.	Those cars are driving too fast.
	These days I feel tired.	I went to school in the 1990s. Those years were great.

5. Modals

COMMON MODAL AUXILIARIES
FUNCTION	MODAL	EXAMPLE	PAST FORM
ability	can	She can speak English.	could speak polite request	may	May I help you? (formal) would	Would Raul like some tea?
	could	Could you pass the butter?
	can	Can I help you? (informal)

1	_
ī	ī
t	_
÷
۵	Υ
Ξ	T
7	=
Š	_
E	1
۵	1
_	-
4	=
(
ī
7
2	_
=	_
۵	_
(_
?	₹
þ	÷
٠	÷
Ļ	÷
Ľ	1
Č	ì
۵	Υ
Ĺ	í
7	_
($\underline{\mathbf{c}}$

advice	should	Steve should stay with us.	should have stayed ought to	The doctor ought to see her.	ought to have seen obligation	must	Jason must leave now.	had to leave have to*	She has to leave now.	(past of must and have to) probability	must	The store must be open.	must have been possibility	could	Dan could help you.	could have helped might	Mary might do the job.	might have done may	Ann may help them.	may have helped condition	would	If I had time, I would help her.	would have helped (expresses a wish) desire	would like	I would like some coffee.	would have liked preference	would rather	I would rather be happy than rich.	would rather have been past habit		In the past, I would drive for hours.

^{*}Although have to isn't a modal auxiliary, it is included on this list because it functions like a modal and has the same meaning as must. For question and negative forms, you must add do or does.

Does he have to leave? He doesn't have to leave.

Note: Gotta is often heard in spoken English, but it should never be written. It is really an incorrect contraction of got and to. Make a habit of using have to instead of got to or gotta.

have to

I gotta find a job.

6. Nouns

A noun is a word that refers to a person, place, or thing. A count noun refers to a person, place, or thing that can be counted and has a plural form. A noncount noun refers to something that cannot be counted and has only a singular form. Often, noncount nouns refer to categories of objects or abstract concepts.

noncount noun

count noun

We had a lot of homework.

We have three assignments.

NONCOUNT NOUNS

Here are some common noncount nouns. They have no plural form.

air	clothing	equipment	homework	machinery	pollution	snow advice	dust	evidence	information	mail	postage	steam attention	education	furniture	jewellery	makeup	progress	traffic behaviour	effort	hail	knowledge	mold	proof	violence
change	electricity	health	luck	money	radiation	weather
(money)	energy	help	luggage	music	research	work

Many food items are noncount nouns: bread, coffee, fish, honey, meat, milk, salt, sugar, tea, etc.

PLURAL FORMS

Many English nouns have irregular plural forms.

man		men	child		children	tooth		teeth	mouse	•	mice
woman		women	person		people	foot		feet	sheep	>	sheep
Most noun	s th	at end in	-f or -fe cha	nge	to -ves in	n the plural	form	n. (Excepti	on: belief	► k	peliefs)
shelf	\blacktriangleright	shelves	life	>	lives	scarf	•	scarves	thief	>	thieves

© ERPI • REPRODUCTION PROHIBITED

7. Phrasal Verbs

Here are some commonly used phrasal verbs.

act up	PHRASAL VERB	MEANING	PHRASAL VERB	MEANING back up	act up	- to act improperly	find out	- to discover blow up — to explode or inflate get by — to survive financially bone up — to study get ready — to prepare give away — to give something for free — to collapse emotionally break down — to use force to enter a locked place — to introduce a subject hand in — to submit work to someone brush up — to introduce a subject hand in — to submit work to someone brush up — to interrupt hang out — to gafaster call back — to return a phone call lay off — to take care of call up — to phone someone make out — to become popular — to become popular — to become popular — to register at a hotel pass out — to mostpone consciousness chip in — to contribute — put off — to stop a labit give up alcohol) — to see consciousness chip in — to contribute — put off — to secretly leave (home) — to the side — to teach on — to become pompatily — to the side — to treutribute — to lose consciousness chip in — to contribute — to cose down — to close permanently — run away — to secretly leave (home) — to make an X over something drop off — to fall asleep — to leave someone or deliver something somewhere — to decline or to solve — to quit school — turn off — to stop a machine or light figure out — to solve — turn of turn or to start a machine or light figure out — to solve — turn on — to start a machine or light	add up	- to calculate	fool around	- to waste time
copies (computer term)	back up	- to move in reverse	freak out	- to overreact
blow up — to explode or inflate get by — to survive financially get ready — to prepare — to stop working — to collapse emotionally give away — to give something for free — to stop a habit (give up alcohol) — to stop a habit (give up alcohol) — to stop a habit (give up alcohol) — to introduce a subject — to submit work to someone — to praise excessively; flatter — to praise excessively; flatter — to tend a repart of the property of the propert		- to support; to make protective	l
break down		copies (computer term)
break down	blow up	- to explode or inflate	get by	- to survive financially
To collapse emotionally Dreak in	bone up	- to study	get ready	- to prepare break in	break down	– to stop working	give away	– to give something for free
place — to stop a habit (give up alcohol) break up — to end a relationship — to mature bring up — to introduce a subject — hand in — to submit work to someone brush up — to practise — hang out — to spend time with someone butt in — to interrupt — hang up — to end a phone conversation butter up — to praise excessively; flatter — hurry up — to go faster call back — to return a phone call — lay off — to temporarily dismiss an employee call off — to cancel — look after — to take care of call up — to phone someone — make out — to identify with difficulty — to kiss and touch carry on — to continue — make up — to reunite after a fight catch on — to become popular — move over — to move to the side check in — to register at a hotel — pass out — to distribute — to lose consciousness chip in — to contribute — put off — to postpone clam up — to stop talking — rip off — to steal close down — to close permanently — run away — to secretly leave (home) close up — to close temporarily — take after — to resemble cross out — to make an X over something — take back — to retrieve dress up — to wear formal clothing — take over — to gain control of something drop off — to fall asleep — to leave someone or deliver something somewhere — to decline drop out — to quit school — turn off — to stop a machine or light figure out — to solve — turn on — to start a machine or light		- to collapse emotionally
break up — to end a relationship grow up — to mature bring up — to introduce a subject hand in — to submit work to someone brush up — to practise hang out — to spend time with someone butt in — to interrupt hang up — to end a phone conversation butter up — to praise excessively; flatter hurry up — to go faster call back — to return a phone call lay off — to temporarily dismiss an employee call off — to cancel look after — to take care of call up — to phone someone make out — to identify with difficulty — to kiss and touch carry on — to continue make up — to reunite after a fight catch on — to become popular move over — to move to the side check in — to register at a hotel pass out — to distribute — to lose consciousness chip in — to contribute put off — to postpone clam up — to stop talking rip off — to steal close down — to close permanently run away — to secretly leave (home) close up — to close temporarily take after — to resemble cross out — to make an X over something take back — to retrieve cut back — reduce the use of something take over — to gain control of something drop off — to fall asleep — to leave someone or deliver something somewhere — to decline drop out — to quit school turn off — to stop a machine or light figure out — to solve turn on — to start a machine or light	break in	- to use force to enter a locked	give up	- to surrender
bring up — to introduce a subject — hand in — to submit work to someone — brush up — to practise — hang out — to spend time with someone — butt in — to interrupt — hang up — to end a phone conversation — butter up — to praise excessively; flatter — hurry up — to go faster — call back — to return a phone call — lay off — to temporarily dismiss an employee — call off — to cancel — look after — to take care of — to identify with difficulty — to kiss and touch — to phone someone — make out — to identify with difficulty — to kiss and touch — to become popular — move over — to move to the side — to register at a hotel — pass out — to distribute — to lose consciousness — chip in — to contribute — put off — to postpone — to stop talking — rip off — to steal — to close permanently — run away — to secretly leave (home) — close up — to close temporarily — take after — to resemble — reduce the use of something — take off — to retrieve — to leave — to fall asleep — to leave someone or deliver something somewhere — to decline — to solve — to start a machine or light — to start a mach		place		- to stop a habit (give up alcohol)
brush up — to practise — hang out — to spend time with someone butt in — to interrupt — hang up — to end a phone conversation butter up — to praise excessively; flatter — hurry up — to go faster — call back — to return a phone call — lay off — to temporarily dismiss an employee call off — to cancel — look after — to take care of — to phone someone — make out — to identify with difficulty — to kiss and touch — to kiss and touch — to become popular — to reunite after a fight — to register at a hotel — to register at a hotel — to lose consciousness — to lose consciousness — to lose consciousness — to stop talking — rip off — to steal — to close permanently — run away — to secretly leave (home) — to close temporarily — take after — to resemble — to reduce the use of something — to keave — to gain control of something — to leave deriver something somewhere — to decline — to solve — to quit school — to run off — to stop a machine or light figure out — to solve — turn on — to start a machine or light	break up	– to end a relationship	grow up	- to mature butt in	bring up	– to introduce a subject	hand in	- to submit work to someone butter up — to praise excessively; flatter call back — to return a phone call lay off — to temporarily dismiss an employee call off — to cancel look after — to take care of — to phone someone make out — to identify with difficulty — to kiss and touch — to carry on — to continue make up — to reunite after a fight — to register at a hotel — to register at a hotel — to register at a hotel — to lose consciousness — to lose consciousness — to stop talking — to stop talking — to stop talking — to close permanently — to secretly leave (home) — to lose up — to close temporarily — take after — to resemble — to leave — to make an X over something — to leave — to gain control of something — to leave someone or deliver something somewhere — to decline — to quit school — to solve — to solve — to stop a machine or light — to solve — to solve — to solve — to stor a machine or light — to solve — to stor and corriging turn on — to start a machine or light	brush up	- to practise	hang out	- to spend time with someone
call back — to return a phone call lay off — to temporarily dismiss an employee call off — to cancel look after — to take care of call up — to phone someone make out — to identify with difficulty — to kiss and touch — to kiss and touch — to carry on — to continue make up — to reunite after a fight — catch on — to become popular move over — to move to the side — check in — to register at a hotel pass out — to distribute — to lose consciousness chip in — to contribute put off — to postpone clam up — to stop talking rip off — to steal close down — to close permanently run away — to secretly leave (home) close up — to close temporarily take after — to resemble cross out — to make an X over something take back — to retrieve cut back — reduce the use of something take off — to remove (clothing) — to leave — to pain control of something — to put in the garbage — to decline — to decline <t< td=""><td>butt in</td><td>- to interrupt</td><td>hang up</td><td>– to end a phone conversation</td></t<>	butt in	- to interrupt	hang up	– to end a phone conversation
call off — to cancel — to phone someone — to phone someone — to identify with difficulty — to kiss and touch — to reunite after a fight — to move to the side — to move to the side — to move to the side — to lose consciousness — to lose consciousness — to lose consciousness — to lose consciousness — to lose down — to stop talking — to go permanently — to steal — to close permanently — to secretly leave (home) — to close up — to close temporarily — take after — to resemble — to make an X over something — to retrieve — to make an X over something — to remove (clothing) — to leave — to gain control of something — to leave — to leave someone or deliver something somewhere — to decline — to quit school — to start a machine or light figure out — to solve — to start a machine or light	butter up	- to praise excessively; flatter	hurry up	– to go faster
call up — to phone someone — make out — to identify with difficulty — to kiss and touch — to kiss and touch — to kiss and touch — to require after a fight — to become popular — to move over — to move to the side — to register at a hotel — to lose consciousness — to lose consciousness — to lose consciousness — to steal — to steal — to close permanently — to steal — to close permanently — to secretly leave (home) — to close up — to close temporarily — take after — to resemble — to make an X over something — to leave — to make an X over something — to leave — to leave — to wear formal clothing — to leave — to gain control of something — to leave someone or deliver something somewhere — to decline — to solve — to start a machine or light figure out — to solve — to start a machine or light	call back	- to return a phone call	lay off	– to temporarily dismiss an employee carry on — to continue — make up — to reunite after a fight catch on — to become popular — move over — to move to the side check in — to register at a hotel — to lose consciousness chip in — to contribute — put off — to postpone clam up — to stop talking — rip off — to steal close down — to close permanently — run away — to secretly leave (home) close up — to close temporarily — take after — to resemble cross out — to make an X over something — to leave cut back — reduce the use of something — to leave dress up — to wear formal clothing — to leave drop off — to fall asleep — to leave someone or deliver something somewhere — to decline drop out — to quit school — to solve — to start a machine or light figure out — to solve — to retrieve — to remove (clothing) — to put in the garbage	call off	- to cancel	look after	– to take care of
carry on - to continue make up - to reunite after a fight catch on - to become popular move over - to move to the side check in - to register at a hotel pass out - to distribute - to lose consciousness chip in - to contribute put off - to postpone clam up - to stop talking rip off - to steal close down - to close permanently run away - to secretly leave (home) close up - to close temporarily take after - to resemble cross out - to make an X over something take back - to retrieve cut back - reduce the use of something take off - to remove (clothing) - to leave dress up - to wear formal clothing take over - to gain control of something drop off - to fall asleep - to leave someone or deliver something somewhere - to decline drop out - to quit school turn off - to stop a machine or light figure out - to solve turn on - to start a machine or light	call up	- to phone someone	make out	– to identify with difficulty
catch on — to become popular — move over — to move to the side check in — to register at a hotel — pass out — to distribute — to lose consciousness chip in — to contribute — put off — to postpone clam up — to stop talking — rip off — to steal close down — to close permanently — run away — to secretly leave (home) close up — to close temporarily — take after — to resemble cross out — to make an X over something — take back — to retrieve cut back — reduce the use of something — to leave dress up — to wear formal clothing — take over — to gain control of something drop off — to fall asleep — to leave someone or deliver something somewhere — to decline drop out — to quit school — to solve — to stop a machine or light figure out — to solve — to start a machine or light				– to kiss and touch
check in	carry on	- to continue	make up	– to reunite after a fight
chip in — to contribute — put off — to postpone clam up — to stop talking — rip off — to steal close down — to close permanently — run away — to secretly leave (home) close up — to close temporarily — take after — to resemble cross out — to make an X over something — take back — to retrieve cut back — reduce the use of something — to leave dress up — to wear formal clothing — to leave drop off — to fall asleep — to leave someone or deliver something somewhere — to decline drop out — to quit school — to solve — to start a machine or light figure out — to solve — to start a machine or light	catch on	- to become popular	move over	- to move to the side
chip in — to contribute — put off — to postpone clam up — to stop talking — rip off — to steal close down — to close permanently — run away — to secretly leave (home) close up — to close temporarily — take after — to resemble cross out — to make an X over something — to retrieve cut back — reduce the use of something — to leave dress up — to wear formal clothing — to gain control of something — to leave someone or deliver — to leave somewhere — to decline drop out — to quit school — to solve — to start a machine or light figure out — to solve — to start a machine or light	check in	- to register at a hotel	pass out	- to distribute
clam up — to stop talking — to step talking — to step talking — to close permanently — to secretly leave (home) close up — to close temporarily — take after — to resemble cross out — to make an X over something — take back — to retrieve cut back — reduce the use of something — to leave dress up — to wear formal clothing — take over — to gain control of something — to leave someone or deliver — to leave someone or deliver — to decline drop out — to quit school — to solve — to start a machine or light — to solve		AUY		- to lose consciousness
close down — to close permanently run away — to secretly leave (home) close up — to close temporarily take after — to resemble cross out — to make an X over something take back — to retrieve cut back — reduce the use of something take off — to remove (clothing) — to leave dress up — to wear formal clothing take over — to gain control of something throw away — to put in the garbage drop off — to fall asleep — to leave someone or deliver something somewhere — to decline drop out — to quit school turn off — to stop a machine or light figure out — to solve take off — to start a machine or light	chip in	– to contribute	put off	- to postpone close up — to close temporarily take after — to resemble cross out — to make an X over something take back — to retrieve cut back — reduce the use of something take off — to remove (clothing) — to leave dress up — to wear formal clothing take over — to gain control of something throw away — to put in the garbage drop off — to decline turn off — to stop a machine or light figure out — to solve take after — to resemble — to retrieve - to retrieve - to remove (clothing) — to leave - to gain control of something — to put in the garbage — to put in the garbage — to put in the garbage — to decline — to solve — to stop a machine or light — to solve — to solve — to start a machine or light	clam up
cross out — to make an X over something cut back — reduce the use of something dress up — to wear formal clothing take over — to gain control of something drop off — to fall asleep — to leave someone or deliver something somewhere — to decline drop out — to quit school — to solve — to start a machine or light	close down	- to close permanently	run away	- to secretly leave (home)
cut back - reduce the use of something take off - to remove (clothing) - to leave dress up - to wear formal clothing take over - to gain control of something drop off - to fall asleep - to leave someone or deliver something somewhere - to decline drop out - to quit school turn off - to stop a machine or light figure out - to solve take over - to remove (clothing) - to remove (clothing) - to pain control of something - to put in the garbage - to put in the garbage - to stop a machine or light	close up	 to close temporarily 	take after	- to resemble
dress up — to wear formal clothing — to gain control of something drop off — to fall asleep — to leave someone or deliver something somewhere — to decline drop out — to quit school — to solve — to start a machine or light	cross out	- to make an X over something	take back	- to retrieve
dress up — to wear formal clothing — to gain control of something drop off — to fall asleep — to leave someone or deliver something somewhere — to decline — to quit school — to quit school — to solve — to start a machine or light	cut back	- reduce the use of something	take off	– to remove (clothing)
drop off - to fall asleep - to leave someone or deliver something somewhere - to decline drop out - to quit school figure out - to solve throw away - to put in the garbage - to stop a machine or light				- to leave
- to leave someone or deliver something somewhere - to decline drop out - to quit school figure out - to solve turn off turn on - to stop a machine or light - to start a machine or light	dress up	– to wear formal clothing	take over	- to gain control of something something somewhere - to decline drop out - to quit school turn off - to stop a machine or light figure out - to solve turn on - to start a machine or light	drop off	- to fall asleep	throw away	- to put in the garbage
- to decline drop out - to quit school turn off - to stop a machine or light figure out - to solve turn on - to start a machine or light		- to leave someone or deliver	l
drop out - to quit school turn off - to stop a machine or light figure out - to solve turn on - to start a machine or light			I
figure out — to solve turn on — to start a machine or light		- to decline drop out	- to quit school	turn off	– to stop a machine or light fill in/out — to complete a form try on — wear something to see if it fits	figure out	- to solve	turn on	– to start a machine or light fill in/out	- to complete a form	try on	- wear something to see if it fits

ERPI • REPRODUCTION PROHIBITED

8. Prepositions

IN, ON, AND AT

Use in. on. and at as follows:

In a year, month, city, country, continent

In March, in 2012, we stayed in London.

On a day of the week, a specific date, a specific street

On March 2, on Tuesday, on Main Street, we saw a fight.

At a specific time of day, a specific address

At 11:00 at night, we stayed at a hotel.

FOR AND DURING

Both for and during indicate that an activity happened over a period of time. However, these words aren't interchangeable. Use during to explain when something happened. Use for to explain how long it took to happen.

The restaurant closed for two hours during the blackout.

During the strike, the hotel workers protested for six hours.

PREPOSITIONAL EXPRESSIONS

Many nouns, verbs, and adverbs are usually followed by certain prepositions. Memorize the following prepositional expressions.

afraid (scared) of	depend on	participate in	search for agree with	insist on	rely on	specialize in believe in	interested in	responsible for	think about / of

9. Pronouns

A subject pronoun performs the action and is usually followed by a verb. An object pronoun replaces an object and is usually found after a verb or preposition.

Subject Pronouns:	1	you	he	she	it	we	they
Object Pronouns:	me	you	him	her	it	us	them

Officer Kate Rowan arrested the bank robbers.

Possessive adjectives describe a noun and appear before the noun that they describe.

Possessive pronouns replace the possessive adjective and noun.

Possessive Adjectives: my your his her its their our Possessive Pronouns: mine his hers theirs yours ours

> possessive adjective possessive pronoun

Anne and Rick lost their passport. Did you lose yours?

Use reflexive pronouns when the subject doing the action and the object receiving the action are the same person or thing.

myself yourself himself herself itself ourselves yourselves themselves

The small boy dresses himself.

HIS, HER, AND ITS

If something belongs to a female, use her.

her brotherher fatherher house

If something belongs to a male, use his.

his car his mother his daughter If something belongs to or is part of an object, use its.

its muffler its wheels its seat

Avoid Pronoun Shifts

A shift occurs when the pronoun doesn't agree with its antecedent. Shifts can also occur within a paragraph.

we

We boarded the train. It was so crowded that you couldn't sit down.

10. Punctuation

APOSTROPHES (')

Use apostrophes

to join a subject and verb together

■ to join an auxiliary with not to indicate possession

(plural: add ')

(irregular plural: add 's)

We're late.

I can't come.

Ross's computer is new.

The girls' school is closed.

The men's room is nearby.

COLONS (:)

Use a colon

after a complete sentence that introduces a list, or after the following

The course has the following sections: crime, law, and justice.

after a complete sentence that introduces a quotation

Picasso's advice was clear: "Find your passion."

to introduce an explanation or example

I decided to confess: my fingerprints were at the crime scene.

• to separate the hours and minutes in expressions of time

The store closed at 12:30 and reopened at 2:00.

COMMAS (,)

Use commas

- to separate three or more words in a series (Put the comma before the final and.)

 The doctor is tall, thin, and gentle.
- after an introductory word, phrase, or idea

First, Mr. Chen closed his store.

A few minutes later, he emptied the safe.

around interrupting phrases that give additional information about the subject.
 Kevin, a student at Victoria College, went through a traffic light.

PERIODS (.)

Use a period

- at the end of a complete sentence
- after the following titles: Ms., Mrs., Mr., and Dr. (Don't put a period after Miss.)

QUOTATION MARKS (" ")

Use quotation marks around direct speech.

Begin a quotation with a capital letter. Put the final comma or period inside the quotation marks.

He said, "The light was green." OR "The light was green," he said.

Put a comma after an introductory phrase.

Jacob shouted, "Help me!"

Put a colon after an introductory sentence.

The doctor delivered the news: "You're healthy."

When quotations are integrated into sentences, just put quotation marks.

Dorothy called herself a "terrible mother."

• When a quotation is inside another quotation, use single quotation marks.

Dante said, "My mother told me, 'Don't be a comedian.'"

SEMICOLONS (;)

Use a semicolon to join two independent and related clauses.

Gandhi was a pacifist; he believed in non-violence.

11. Spelling

SOME COMMONLY MISSPELLED WORDS

absence	advice (noun)	bargain	career	conscience accessible	advise (verb)	basically	careful	conscientious accidentally	alcohol	beginning	changeable	continue accommodate	another	believe	character	counsellor accomplish	apartment	benefit	commitment	courteous accumulate	appearance	between	company	criticism
acquaintance	appointment	business	completely	deceive
address	balloon	calendar	conflict	definitely

© ERPI • REPRODUCTION PROHIBITED

description generally maintenance personality responsibility developed manageable scientific government personal (private) discipline happiness marriage separate personnel (staff) dilemma height medicine severely piece disappearance heroes mentioned similar possess millionaire disappoint historical succeed (verb) potato(es) dissatisfied human miscellaneous success (noun) potential disease immediately mortgage surely practically easily independence statistics naturally preferred eighth initiative necessary strength prejudice technical embarrassed interesting necessity privilege interrupt ninety technique encouragement proceed environment jealousy ninth through professor noticeable together exaggerate judge proof (noun) exercise knowledge nowadays tomorrow prove (verb) family language obstacle twelfth psychology finally leisure occasionally unique quantity financially occurred usually length questioned forty lightning omitted writing questionnaire fourth Ioneliness organization really fulfill loose (not tight) panicked receive function lose (can't find) parallel recommend future permitted magazine

12. Verb Tense Review

12.1 PRESENT TENSES

Simple Present	Present Progressive
The simple present indicates general truths, facts,	The present progressive indicates that an action and habitual actions.	is happening now or for a present, temporary
Ron works every night.	period of time.
Add -s or -es to verbs that follow third-person	Right now, Ron is working .
singular subjects.	Question: Is he working?
Question: Does he work every night?	Negative: He isn't working.
Negative: He doesn't work every night.	Keywords: now, at this moment, currently, these
Keywords: always, often, usually, sometimes, rarely,	days
never, every day, every week	Note: Some verbs are non-progressive (see chart on page 12).

Exception: Be

Use the verb be to identify age, hunger, thirst, feelings, height, and temperature. Remember that the form of the verb must also agree with the subject of the sentence.

I am hungry. Sebastian is twenty years old. They are thirsty.

Question and Negative Forms

In questions, just move be before the subject. Add not to negative forms.

The song is popular.

Is the song popular?

The song is not popular.

The singers are loud.

Are the singers loud?

They are not loud.

TIP

Simple Present

■ Have is irregular. The third-person singular form is has.

■ Everybody is considered third-person singular.

There is one thing. There are two or more things.

Judy has three children.

Everybody likes coffee.

12.2 PAST TENSES

Simple Past	Past Progressive
The simple past indicates that an action was	The past progressive indicates that an action was completed at an understood past time.	in progress at a specific past time or when another
Last night, he watched TV.	action interrupted it.
Question: Did he watch TV?	Last night, he was watching TV when I called.
Negative: He didn't watch TV.	Question: Was he watching TV when?
Keywords: ago, yesterday, last week, when I was	Negative: He wasn't watching TV when young, many years ago	Keywords: while, during

EXCEPTION: BE

There are two past forms of the verb be. To form questions, simply move was or were before the subject. Just add not to negative forms.

I/He/She/It was: She was nice. Was the job difficult? It wasn't hard.
 You/We/They were: You were tired. Were they late? They weren't late.

TIP

Past Tenses

■ Simple Past – In question and negative forms, use the base form of the verb.

help

Did she helped you?

■ Past Progressive — Do not use the past progressive to talk about past habits or about a series of past actions. Only use this tense to emphasize that an action was in progress.

NON-PROGRESSIVE VERBS

The following verbs are generally not used in the progressive tense.

PERCEPTION	PREFERENCE	MENTAL STATE/OPINION	POSSESSION
appear & seem	dislike	believe	belong
feel	hate	forget	have (meaning "possess")
hear	like	know	own
resemble	love	mean	possess
see	need	recognize	Q
smell	prefer	remember
sound	want	think (meaning "in my opinion")
taste		understand

12.3 FUTURE TENSES

The future tenses indicate that an action will occur at a future time. You can use will or be going to plus the verb.

WILL	(BE) GOING TO
Will + verb indicates a future action. Also indicates a spontaneous or voluntary decision. He will help you.	(Be) going to + verb indicates a future action and a definite future plan. Next week, they are going to do the job.
Question: Will he help you? Negative: He won't help you.	Question: Are they going to do the job? Negative: They aren't going to do the job.
Keywords: soon, later, tomorrow, the day after tomorrow, next week, next month, in five years

TIME CLAUSES

In sentences that indicate the future, use the present tense in time clauses. A time clause begins with a time marker such as when. Never use the future tense after these time markers:

after before until as soon as unless when/whenever time marker

When I finish college, I will try to find an interesting job.

PRESENT TENSES

Present tenses can indicate future actions.

■ The present progressive can refer to a previously planned event.

Next December, we are visiting Mexico.

The simple present can be used to talk about schedules and timetables.

The train leaves at midnight. The football game starts at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

THE FUTURE PROGRESSIVE

The future progressive indicates that an action will be in progress at a future time. The tense is formed with will be + an "ing" verb.

Tomorrow, when you come to my office, I will be working.

Use Going To, Not "Gonna"

Gonna is not a proper word. Instead, use going to.

going to

Miranda is gonna call you.

12.4 PRESENT PERFECT TENSES

PRESENT PERFECT

The present perfect can be used in two distinct ways:

1) when an action began in the past and continues to the present.

Keywords: since, for, ever, not ... yet, so far, up to now

Simon has lived alone since 2014.

(The event began in 2014 and continues to the present.)

2) when the time of a past action (or past actions) is not important or not specified.

Keywords: already, once, twice, several times, many times (before now)

Simon has visited Italy many times.

(The visits occurred at unspecified past times.)

PRESENT PERFECT PROGRESSIVE

The present perfect progressive is used to indicate that an action has been in progress (without interruption) from a past time up to the present. This tense emphasizes the duration of an activity.

Mark has been reading for six hours.

Since vs. For

- Since refers to a specific time in the past when the action began (since I graduated, since I was a child, since 2006, etc.).
- For refers to the amount of time that the action lasted (for six months, for years, for a few hours, etc.).

Present Perfect

Do not use the present perfect tense when the past time is known.

visited

Two years ago, we have visited Florida.

12.5 PAST PERFECT TENSE

The past perfect tense indicates that one past action happened before another past action. It is formed with had + the past participle.

Keywords: up to that time, already

Last night, the robbers had already left when the police arrived at the bank.

The robbers had left when the police arrived.

13. Questions

Yes/No questions begin with an auxiliary. The answer to these questions is "yes" or "no."

Do you live in an apartment? Yes, I do. No, I don't.

Information questions begin with question words, such as who, what, when, where, why, how, etc.

When did you move here? How often do you travel?

Subject questions ask about the subject. When who, what, and how many ask about the subject of a question, no auxiliary is needed.

Who needs to borrow some money? What looks beautiful?

Alex needs to borrow some money. His house looks beautiful.

QUESTION STRUCTURE

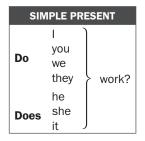

Questions have the following word order.

QUESTION WORD	AUXILIARY	SUBJECT	VERB	REST OF SENTENCE
	Do	you	want	to eat?
	Does	she	work?
What	are	you	doing?
Why	did	Mark	leave	yesterday?
When	should	we	visit	you?

QUESTION WORDS

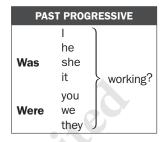

QUESTION WORD	REFERS TO	QUESTION WORD	REFERS TO
Who	a person Who are you? Who do you work with?	How	a method or degree How did you make this? How cold is it?
What	a thing What is your name?	How long	a period of time How long is the movie?
When	a time When does the show start?	How far	a distance How far is Laval from here?
Where	a place Where do you live?	How often	the frequency of an activity How often do you see a dentist?
Why	a reason Why is he late?	How much/ How many	an amount of something How much does it cost? How many people are there?
Which	a choice Which salad do you want?	How old	age How old is Lucas?

QUESTIONS IN ALL VERB TENSES

	SIMPLE PAST
Did	l he she it you we they	walk?

PRE	PRESENT PROGRESSIVE
Am	1)
Is	he she it	> working?
Are	you we they

Be

PRESENT
Am	1)
Is	he she it	busy?
Are	you we they

	PAST	+
Was	he she it	ready?
Were	you we they

14. Common Irregular Verbs

BASE FORM	SIMPLE PAST	PAST PARTICIPLE	BASE FORM	SIMPLE PAST	PAST PARTICIPLE
be	was/were	been	draw	drew	drawn beat	beat	beat/beaten	drink	drank	drunk become	became	become	drive	drove	driven begin	began	begun	eat	ate	eaten bend	bent	bent	fall	fell	fallen bet	bet	bet	feed	fed	fed bite	bit	bitten	feel	felt	felt bleed	bled	bled	fight	fought	fought blow	blew	blown	find	found	found break	broke	broken	fit	fit	fit
bring	brought	brought	fly	flew	flown
build	built	built	forbid	forbade	forbidden
buy	bought	bought	forget	forgot	forgotten
catch	caught	caught	forgive	forgave	forgiven
choose	chose	chosen	freeze	froze	frozen come	came	come	get	got	got/gotten cost	cost	cost	give	gave	given
cut	cut	cut	go	went	gone
deal	dealt	dealt	grow	grew	grown dig	dug	dug	hang ¹	hung	hung do	did	done	have	had	had

1. When hang means "to suspend by a rope, as in a form of capital punishment," then it is a regular verb. The past forms are hanged.

Continued

hear	heard	heard	shrink	shrank	shrunk
hide	hid	hidden	shut	shut	shut
hit	hit	hit	sing	sang	sung
hold	held	held	sink	sank	sunk
hurt	hurt	hurt	sit	sat	sat
keep	kept	kept	sleep	slept	slept know	knew	known	slide	slid	slid lay ²	laid	laid	speak	spoke	spoken lead	led	led	speed	sped	sped leave	left	left	spend	spent	spent lend	lent	lent	spin	spun	spun
let	let	let	split	split	split lie ³	lay	lain	spread	spread	spread light	lit	lit	stand	stood	stood lose	lost	lost	steal	stole	stolen
make	made	made	stick	stuck	stuck
mean	meant	meant	sting	stung	stung
meet	met	met	stink	stank	stunk
mistake	mistook	mistaken	strike	struck	struck pay	paid	paid	swear	swore	sworn put	put	put	sweep	swept	swept prove	proved	proved/proven	swim	swam	swum quit	quit	quit	swing	swung	swung read ⁴	read	read	take	took	taken ride	rode	ridden	teach	taught	taught ring	rang	rung	tear	tore	torn rise	rose	risen	tell	told	told run	ran	run	think	thought	thought say	said	said	throw	threw	thrown see	saw	seen	understand	understood	understood sell	sold	sold	upset	upset	upset
send	sent	sent	wake	woke	woken
set	set	set	wear	wore	worn shake	shook	shaken	win	won	won shoot	shot	shot	withdraw	withdrew	withdrawn show	showed	shown	write	wrote	written

- 2. Lay means "to set or place something on a surface." It is always followed by a noun. Example: I laid my book on the desk.
- 3. Lie means "to rest or lie down, such as on a sofa or bed." When lie means "to tell a false statement," it is a regular verb: lie-lied-lied.
- 4. The present form of read is pronounced "reed." The simple past and past participle forms are pronounced "red."